

Chairman Pattison Refuses Flatly to be Interviewed About the Tennis Association Concert and Dance

HE ADMITS, HOWEVER, THAT IT WILL BE ONE OF THE FINEST AFFAIRS EVER GIVEN IN NARBERTH—BELIEVE US, ITS SOME JOB TO MAKE HIM TALK!

"I have nothing to say! I shall not make a statement of any kind, and you can tell your Editor—Mr. Jacobs, I think his name is—that when seen at his home on Woodside avenue, Mr. Robert Ethelbert Pattison—get that right, young man, P-a-t-t-i-s-o-n, not P-a-t-t-e-r-s-o-n, chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the Narberth Tennis Association, refused, ab-so-lute-ly to make any statement concerning the fine concert—be sure and put it that way, young man, f-i-n-e concert, and dance that is to be given in Elm Hall, Friday evening, January 9, at 8.15."

The reporter for Our Town had called on Mr. Pattison in hopes that Mr. Pattison might care to make some kind of a statement regarding this coming musical event in our borough. We tried all our journalistic tricks on him in our efforts to persuade him to talk, but to no purpose whatsoever.

"I don't want to be interviewed, and I don't intend to let any newspaper force me into talking. Just you write in your paper—and it's all right if you put it on the first page, that this concert and dance that is to be given Friday evening, January 9, at Elm Hall, is going to be the best affair of its kind ever given in Narberth."

Doesn't Want to Be Quoted.

"Don't quote me, you understand, but tell the people of our town that through the kind efforts of Mrs. James G. Foote, who is directing the concert, we have secured seven of the finest musicians in Philadelphia."

"Now if I were you, I'd put it this way: First, the Philharmonic Quartette, composed of Miss May Farley, soprano; Dr. John B. Becker, tenor, and Mr. John Vandersloot, bass—all of whom have been heard in Narberth, and are very popular with our people, and Mrs. Eleanor Moore Shute, one of Philadelphia's finest contraltos, who I know will win popular favor as readily as the other three have on past occasions. This Philharmonic Quartette is without question one of the best—perhaps THE best, quartette of vocalists in Philadelphia. And in addition to these four singers, Mrs. Foote has secured for our program two unusually accomplished young women, Miss Florence Haenle, violinist, and Miss May Delle Hagen Duch, cellist. Finally, Mr. William Sylvano Thunder, one of Philadelphia's most finished musicians, will be at the piano.

"What will the program be? Now see here, young man, didn't I tell you just a few minutes ago that I didn't care to say anything about this concert. Of course there will be a program, and let me tell you right now, that it will be the most enjoyable program that has ever been rendered at any Narberth musical. Probably it will be completed and ready this time next week. Call me up on the phone just before you go to press, and if it is ready I'll give it to you."

Says Reporter Is Impertinent.

"Tickets? You want to know where the people of Narberth can get tickets? More of your impertinence, eh? Well, they can get them from me, for instance—Robert E. Pattison, chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the Narberth Tennis Association, in charge of the concert and dance to be given in Elm Hall, Friday evening, January 9, or from either of the other two members of the committee, William J. Kirkpatrick and E. A. Muschamp, and also from Mrs. James G. Foote. Later, tickets will be sent to all the members; tell 'em not to get impatient. They'll probably receive them the day after Christmas."

"And if you've got any space left, put this in or Bill Kirkpatrick will be sore: Dancing after the concert and the same jazz orchestra that we had at the last tennis dance—you know, the same dance and party at which Walter Shaw was awarded that belt with a silver buckle for winning the champion combination running broad and high jump."

"Take it from me, you—what'd you say your name was? Oh, yes, I remember now. Take it from me—that's what I was saying, wasn't it? Take it from me, January 9 is going to be a big night in Narberth. And—"

Here Mr. Pattison leaned over and whispered in the reporter's ear: "Tell your friends—this is inside and confidential—to get their tickets early. If they wait until the day before the concert—it's on January 9, you remember, Friday evening, in Elm Hall—to get their tickets I'm afraid they'll be too late. There was a big demand for tickets before they were even printed."

effort until February, thus making the January coal an unknown quantity until our Mrs. Romaine Hoffman happily suggested that we have a Christmas sale of every gifty looking article already prepared for the carnival. This was done, with the result that we have seventy-five dollars to add to our bank account, the January coal is assured and we are all happy.

Our work for 1919 is now successfully finished, and in thanking all of our many loyal supporters, we wish to extend our heartiest Christmas greeting to every one in Narberth.

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS FOR LATE SHOPPERS.

Mrs. Romaine Hoffman will be glad to display in her home at any time about twenty-five of the most adorable little dolls for stocking fillers, all dressed in their very best gowns, as infants, brides, ballet girls, romper boys, kowpies, etc., which were received by the Women's Auxiliary too late for the sale last Saturday.

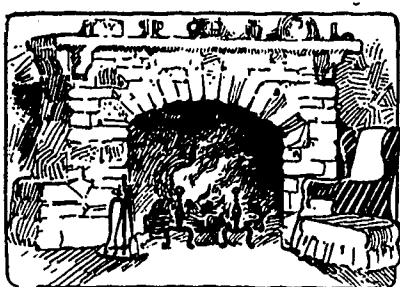

There are also just eight aprons of gingham, percale, etc., all well made, and the prices are right.

COMMUNITY CAROL SERVICE

Monday Evening, December 22nd,
8.00 P. M.

SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

The old Christmas Carols to be sung by the High School Chorus of two hundred voices. Some carols by the audience. Modern Christmas songs by the Chorus. MISS I. JUNE CROSS, Director. The public cordially invited.

THE FIRESIDE

Don't miss the Chi Pi dance, December 26, the night after Christmas.

Mr. A. J. Doolittle was in Scranton this week.

Mr. J. Hazard has returned from quite an extended visit to Rochester.

Join the 1920 Christmas Club, now starting at the Merion Title and Trust Company.

Ye lovers of Ye Olde Time Christmas Carols, go to the school on the hill on Monday evening.

Admission to the Chi Pi dance for two persons will be $1.50 and may be paid at the door.

Do you read the many interesting advertisements appearing in Our Town each week?

Mr. and Mrs. George Orth entertained as their guest over the week end Mr. W. Shimp, of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. G. Rust has returned to Narberth after quite a protracted stay in Wilkes-Barre and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Livingston spent several days of this week in Maplewood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. James Donnelly and family will spend the Christmas holidays in Baltimore.

Red Cross seals should go on all your Christmas cards and packages and may be purchased at the Narberth Post Office.

The American Legion claim that they have the jazziest jazz orchestra direct from Jazzland for their New Year's Eve dance. Better be there.

You can always find the fellow that does not advertise complaining about the people going elsewhere to do their shopping.

The usual sort of Xmas gifts this year are scarce and high in price. Give War Stamps or Thrift Stamps and see them grow.

Mrs. R. J. Dothard, of Wynnewood avenue, entertained a few friends at cards on Saturday evening, December 13th.

The ideal and least expensive gift for a child is a 25-cent Thrift Stamp. It points the way to success and growth.

Now that the bold hold-up men have been captured we can all walk along the street in the evening without suspecting every automobile that passes is the bandits' car.

Members of the Women's Community Club who wish to send Christmas cards to the "shut-ins" of Narberth may have the names and addresses (six in number) by calling Mrs. J. S. Harris.

If you are fond of good music and want to enjoy an all-music Christmas service, go to the Baptist Church of the Evangel to-morrow, Sunday evening, December 21, 7.30 o'clock.

The second American Legion dance will be in Elm Hall New Year's Eve, December 31, and everybody will be there. Dance the old year out and the new year in, in your own town among your friends.

A unique entertainment will be given at Narberth M. E. Church on Tuesday

School Notes

"Without halting, without rest,
Lifting better up to best."

The last call to the happy hour of carols, by the school and community. Remember this is Narberth's carol service. The school merely provides the place and the chorus. The citizens must provide the audience and half the inspiration.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the doors will close for the first number. Why miss the first?

Then, too, don't forget the little tots and their program on Tuesday at 1.30 P. M. The program this year will be entirely different from any heretofore rendered.

Don't miss the Christmas decorations in both buildings. Greens and pictures (drawn by the pupils) have literally transformed the rooms. Parents and everybody else are invited to come any time on Monday or Tuesday to visit the schools and tour the buildings. It will be worth while. The decorating of rooms has been a long honored custom in the Narberth Schools. Incidentally it may be well to say that we students are always cautioned not to gather greens without permission, and to always protect the plants by careful gathering. So, when you see our rooms, bear in mind the bountiful supply of laurel is not "hoity."

The Christmas donation of toys, old and new clothing and groceries will go to the University Settlement House—non-denominational and no overhead costs."

An extract from a letter received from University Settlement House at Thanksgiving time may be of interest:

"If it had not been for your generous help we could not have sent Thanksgiving baskets. Your Thanksgiving offering made it possible for us to take care of many fatherless children, as it was to them that we gave your generous donations. We also received the check, and I need not tell you that that is greatly appreciated also."

Sophomore Doings.

Our statement in our last week's Our Town—"The Sophs are always doing something"—is proved by the successful and most entertaining evening we had on Friday evening, December 12th, and to continue our "doings" the Sophomore girls gave the boys another party Tuesday afternoon, the 16th, to demonstrate to the Sophomore boys their ability in cooking.

The Senior girls also gave their boys a party on Wednesday afternoon, December 17th, likewise showing their efficiency in culinary art.

Freshmen Notes.

The Freshmen girls are busy decorating their room for Christmas. The noted artists, Marie Mieson, Charlotte Hillegas and Thelma Fowler (of course there are others), are drawing beautiful pictures on the boards.

Maybe the weather doesn't give you a Christmas spirit, but if you take a peep on the inside of the Narberth High School, you will get the spirit and get it right, and what's more, you will find everybody smiling.

Seventh Grade Boys.

Our desk class is composed of 28 boys, full of energy and high spirits. This is our first year in the Junior High School, and we are pretty well adjusted to our new environment now. After the holidays we young citizens expect to form a community government. This will develop our spirit of self-reliance and co-operation.

We use the Library, and over seventy books have been borrowed this year, a large number of them being used by these boys.

Of our boyhood, we may well say with Holmes:

"And when we have done with our life-loving toys,
Dear Father, take care of Thy children, the Boys!"

Are you over seven years of age, or over seventy-seven? If so, you can put in an evening of dancing, Elm Hall New Year's Eve, at the American Legion Dance.

Special Christmas Music at the Baptist Church of the Evangel

Narberth folks who enjoy fine Christmas music will be interested in the special program arranged for to-morrow's—Sunday evening—services at the Baptist Church of the Evangel. The service begins at 7.30 o'clock and will be exclusively musical.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Tillman O. Lane, will render Nevin's beautiful Christmas cantata, "The Adoration." Mrs. Lane is without question one of Narberth's most accomplished musicians, and she, and the choir which has been especially augmented for this service, have been untiring in their efforts to make this occasion the crowning Christmas event of our home town.

The soloists in the cantata will be: Miss May Fielis, soprano; Mrs. Katharine Trowbridge, contralto; Mr. Geo. Turner, tenor, and Mr. Henry Murdock, baritone. Miss Anne E. Jackson, violinist, and Mrs. Fred C. Patten, cornetist, will render special numbers. There will also be two other fine musical features—soprano solos with violin obligatos—"O! Day of Christ," by Bartlett, and "The Christ Child," by Coombe.

Miss Jackson and Mrs. Patten need no special introduction to Narberth folks, as they are both well and favorably known.

On Sunday morning, the pastor, Avery S. Denmy, will deliver a special Christmas message, and the choir will render appropriate Christmas music. In the afternoon the Sunday School will have their Christmas exercises. Everyone in Narberth is invited to these Christmas services, especially the musical services in the evening.

METHODIST CHOIR'S CHRISTMAS CANTATA TO BE LED BY PROF. NICE.

On Sunday evening at 7.45, December 21, the Methodist Church Choir will render an exceptional cantata, "The Story of Bethlehem," by William R. Spence, under the direction of Prof. Clarence E. Nice. There will be about 25 voices, all Narberth talent and trained to perfect harmony and rhythm. Running through this cantata are several beautiful solos, and a splendid male chorus. The special soloists of the evening will be Mrs. Mary E. Dull, Mrs. Noel Butler, Miss Ruth E. Prescott, Mr. Edward Stanley, Mr. Balieu, and Mr. Dayton.

The chorus is especially fortunate in having secured Prof. Nice as its leader, who has been able, in the past, to obtain such results and effects from this volunteer chorus as to place it on the par almost of a professional organization. It is the sincere hope of numerous music lovers of Narberth that in the near future Prof. Nice will conduct a Narberth Choral Society.

BELL CO. CUTS SIXTH FROM PHONE BILLS.

Public Gets First Benefits This Month From Rate Ruling of Service Commission.

Thousands of Bell Telephone subscribers who received their monthly bills early in the week found a welcome rubber stamp notation on the bills deducting one-sixth of the amount owed.

The deduction was the result of the Public Service Commission's recent order restoring the pre-war rates for Bell Telephone service. Under Government control the rates had been boosted 20 per cent.

Service was billed at the war-time rates, with an added notation that one-sixth of the total amount was deducted.

Because of the flood of bills which had to be gone over in a few days, some errors crept into the notices sent out. One subscriber, whose pre-war rate was $4.50 a month, and who was paying $5.40 a month under the revoked rates, was billed at $5.

In such cases where clerical errors occur the company explained that the subscriber need pay only the amount of the revoked rate, less one-sixth of the total, thus bringing the rate back to its pre-war status.

The cost of the course is $3. The lectures will be held each morning, the same course repeated in the evening. Mrs. Nancy N. was hunting Wednesday afternoon in the woods near a small creek, near Ardmore, he caught sight of a rabbit, which darted into a pile of stones.

In his endeavor to get the rabbit, Albany unearthed a camera box, much dilapidated by rain and exposure, which contained a gold cross, set with small turquoises; a gold link bracelet, evidently belonging to a wrist watch, and a small silver bar pin. Albany turned the trinkets in to Captain Donaghy, of the Lower Merion police station, who is looking for the owner.

SOPHOMORES TO HAVE BETTER TEAMS AND BETTER SPORTS.

By a Sophomore.

There was a new enterprise started in school last year. It was the organizing of Freshman teams in sports. This year, as we are now Sophomores, we are going to have better teams and better sports.

We are going to try to have a few games in basketball at night on our floor so as the people who wish to see us play will have the chance.

This year our Captain, E. C. Riley, we are sure will make good and put pep into the team. The same manager, H. R. McCarter, was re-elected, and we are sure he is going to prove much better than last year.

We will advertise our games on the bulletin boards. Watch the bulletin boards and try to attend all games played here at home.

If any others are contemplating taking up this great opportunity, will you please consult the Y. M. C. A. Women's Community Club Notes

Attention of the members is called to the date of the next meeting, which will be on Tuesday, December 30th. Inasmuch as the regular day fell on December 23rd, just two days prior to Christmas, it was deemed wisest to skip this date and hold the next meeting on December 30th. A full account of that program will be printed in next week's issue.

Your attention is also called to the fact that some very interesting programs are being prepared for the club year, notably the one for January 13th, which will be presented by Mrs. John Roberts, chairman of the Literature and Art Committee of the New Century Club, Philadelphia. Mrs. Roberts brings with her several other members prominent in club work. This is planned as one of our special days.

The steady and continued growth of the club is very gratifying to all interested, twenty-nine new members having been added since November 1st, and we are very proud to claim among our members the newly elected, who are: Mrs. Clement Booth, Mrs. J. A. England, Mrs. James Houston, Mrs. William Stanley, Mrs. J. E. Chappette, Mrs. J. G. Foote, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. W. McKinney, Mrs. Tillman O'Leane, Mrs. C. Brownell, Mrs. Daniel Lietch, Mrs. N. W. Evans, Mrs. Robert Colley, Mrs. E. A. Muschamp, Miss Grace Gregg, Mrs. C. T. Porter, Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, Miss Maizie Simpson, Mrs. W. B. Goodall, Mrs. James P. Witherow, Mrs. J. E. Sherron, Mrs. Karstens, Mrs. Horace Moore, Mrs. Owens Walker Lee, Mrs. James Fair, Mrs. Howard Hagar, Mrs. F. D. Heckler, Mrs. J. B. Smith, and Mrs. W. Atkinson, of Philadelphia.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding on what may sometimes appear like delay in the acceptance to membership, it may be wise to state here that the Executive Board meeting will fall on the morning of the day of the first meeting in each month. Any member wishing to propose another member will send her name with the sponsors, preferably to the membership chairman, Mrs. W. J. Mullholland, in time for such meeting. Your co-operation will be much appreciated.

Card Party Postponed.

The card party that was to be held at the home of Mrs. R. J. Dothard in December was postponed, owing to the close proximity of Christmas, to January, 16th. Members are urged to remember this last date.

Club Chorus.

The club chorus will meet on the regular club days one hour before the time scheduled for the day's program. In other words, all interested are urged to be at the Y. M. C. A. promptly at 2 P. M. There is a splendid opportunity for this department, and the earnest endorsement of those interested cannot help to make it a success. This work is being done under the able leadership of Mrs. A. B. Ross and Mrs. Tillman O. Lane.

Club Story Hour for Children.

It is hoped the club's nursery will be in full swing at the next meeting, December 30, when all members wishing to bring their children will find them well cared for and entertained. Encourage this venture by availing yourselves of the privileges it offers.

evening, December 30, by Class No. 9 of that Sunday School. Come in your rags, if you have any, and enjoy the fun.

"What'll I give for Christmas?" The answer: Give Thrift Stamps, 25c.; War Savings Stamps, $4.23, or Treasury Saving Certificates, $84.60. Maturity value of the latter is $100.00. Those who receive the above may watch them grow.

Buy a stock of one and two-cent stamps at the Post Office. You can always use them, and they will be convenient for you for mailing Christmas cards, and by buying them in quantities you can save our Post Office folks a lot of time during the very busy hours before Christmas.

There are good dances, better dances, bestest dances, and Chi Pi dances, and the girls of the Chi Pi Sorority are going to hold one of their dances in Elm Hall Friday evening, December 26. Old King Jazz himself will be there with all the Jazz brothers, and you just won't be able to keep from dancing.

Remember to post your Christmas gift parcels as early as possible. Postmaster Haws and his regular staff of efficient workers will be augmented by a number of alert extra helpers, but there are only 24 hours in every day and there are only five more days before Christmas Eve. Mail all your packages, letters and cards as early in the week as possible—especially the out-of-town mail.

Last Saturday, December 13th, the Merion Title and Trust Company mailed 2,500 checks, amounting to $115,000, to members of their Christmas Savings Club. This large amount included $27,500 (600 checks) mailed from Narberth office to Narberth residents and their friends. The increase in Narberth this year over last year is almost $10,000, which is a remarkable showing when you stop to think a year ago when the Christmas Club was starting three Liberty Loan Clubs were running with another in sight. The new club starts Monday, December 22, 1919. Be sure to join.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Philler and family, of Cleveland avenue, left this week for Buffalo, where they will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives, enroute to Hawthorne, Chicago, where they plan to make their home. Mr. Philler, who is connected with the Western Electric Company, was recently transferred to the main office and factory of the Western Company at Hawthorne. Mr. and Mrs. Philler's many friends will miss them. Mr. Philler was an active member of the Narberth Tennis Association, one of the best players in the organization, and during the past season served faithfully and efficiently as chairman of the Grounds Committee.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

The next regular meeting will be held on Monday evening, January 5th, at 8 o'clock promptly. Please remember.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, addresses, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
